

Book a Historian

One-On-One Help with Historical Research or Genealogical (Family History) research.

An appointment-based reference service designed to guide you in the best use of our collection and informational resources when conducting local history or genealogical research. Sessions are scheduled for 1 hour.

Please fill out the form completely. A staff member will contact you to schedule an appointment. Appointments are limited to one session per month per person.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Email Address: _____

Preferred Appointment Time: Morning Afternoon Evening

Select a Topic (Due to the limited time of the appointment, we can only work on one topic per session):

Genealogy/Local History Please bring names/dates for ancestors if available.

- Ancestors' complete name _____
- Dates/known info for this ancestor _____

- What sources have you already accessed or searched regarding this ancestor? _____

Historical Research Please bring names/dates for ancestors if available.

- Primary subject matter _____
- Historical time period _____
- What sources have you already accessed or consulted regarding this ancestor? _____

Other help related to historical or genealogical research: (Using electronic devices, microfilm reader, finding resources online, completing pedigree charts, citing your sources)

Device: Will you be bringing your own device?

No, I will use the library computer Yes, my Device is a _____

Please note that staff are unable to investigate lengthy requests requiring hours of research time. Our staff members are family history enthusiasts and not certified genealogists. If we are unable to help with your research we will happily direct you to the appropriate resources.

Received by: _____ Date: _____